BOLIVIAN POLITICS

It is very seldom that news of any kind comes from Bolivia: when something extraordinary really happens, it is received from Valparaiso, and a Tupiza telegram to the Bolivian Legation is sure to contradict the news within 24 hours. The news of the truce agreement between Chile and Boliva came from Chile, and in spite of the Tupiza telegrams turns out true, since yesterday's telegraphic advices from Santiago de Chile point that way. Bolivia has played a most unfortunate role during the war: Peru has the sympathies of this continent, whilst her ally is only reaping the deserved reputation that must necessarily follow in the wake of such extraordinary behaviour and indifference.

The battle of Tacna drove the Bolivians from Tarapaca into their own country, and since then the Government has played the part of a neutral in the struggle. Chorillos, Miraflores and Lima were the results of the neutrality. The alliance in fact remained a dead letter, and Boliva now can only reckon on one friend—Chile. Peru will never forget the shameful policy of the Bolivian Government: Argentines have already emitted their opinions in the matter, and in Brazil, the Press states that the best thing to do is to divide Bolivia into four pieces, and give Chilians, Argentines, Peruvians and Brazilians each a piece.

With foes on all sides Bolivia now, according to a Bolivian correspondence in the Patria of Santiago de Chile, is inclining towards the Chilian Government. The American Minister, Mr Adams, has offered his friendly services to mediate between Bolivia and Chile; the Bolivian Government has accepted the mediation, in spite of the Peruvian alliance.

The correspondence in question continues to say:—"Bolivia does not actually need any foreign intervention to settle her affairs. This country in general is favorably inclined towards a direct agreement with Chile. We have two great enemies, closely watching our future, and we need a guarantee of peace.

"The Washington Government cannot give us this guarantee of peace, we must get it from Chile alone. The Argentine Republic is spying our movements, awaiting the opportunity to give us the final blow, premediated since so many years. The revelations of the Argentine Press are not new to us. In 1868 Mr Gonsalez published in Tacna a pamphlet containing the communication of the British Minister at Buenos Aires to Lord Russell, with regard to the confidential disclosures of Gen. Mitre. These disclosures pointed to the formation of a powerful nation out of the old states of the Buenos Aires Viceroyalty. Nobody then headed these revelations, considering them the product of mental aberration. But the press of Buenos Aires has now again taken up the question. This proves to us that we must expect an enemy from the Atlantic.

"We will soon have an irreconcileable enemy in Peru. The old hatred will soon revive with the bill that has risen out of the disasters of the alliance."

If the contents of the above correspondence are the true expression of public opinion in Bolivia, it is greatly to be feared that Bolivians have not only lost their stamina as men, but also their brains. A special convention with Chile against Peru and this country would be filling up the cup of opprobrium and disgrace. The West Coast war, as far as Bolivia is concerned, has been a homily of baer-faced corruption. General Campero, with all his proclamations and promises, was unable to send a single man to the seat of war after the defeat at Tacna. Whatever be the causes of this dubious attitude, all have judged same in an impartial light. The last paragraph in the correspondence shews the true feeling; fears are entertained that the disasters of the alliance will revive dissensions amongst the old allies. It is only too much to be feared, as there is only too much reason for it. But as regards the ambitions views of Argentines to annex Bolivia, the writer has gone much astray to find a plausible motive for advocating the friendship of Chile. The Chilians themselves know too well what they have to expect from such a friendly overture. The only ambition entertained by the Argentine Government is to annex Bolivian trade and make the Southern products of that Republic pass through the Argentine Republic to the Atlantic.

"CULTO" CORRESPONDENCE

Minister Pizarro's letters to Mr. Sarmiento have taken the public by surprise. Such documents, coming from the pen of a Minister, and a 'Ministro de Culto' into the bargain, reveal a state of affairs in political high life that none of us dreamt off. The Minister's first letter we cannot publish, simply from the impossibility of translating certain expressions that custom and good morals prohibit. His Excellency's second lettter we give at foot. The paper stands for itself and really defies comment. The chief interest it gives rise to is to see Mr. Sarmiento's answer,—but some of the friends of the 'Pilluelos of Belgrano' will no doubt take the matter up. Thus, to use the Minister's own expressions, there will be full 'room made for the fight.' Possibly the present intensely hot weather may have something to do in goading the Minister to that point where even self-respect is forgotten, but we certainly look for some apology to screen the Cabinet of which Mr. Pizzaro is a member from the merited opprobium which Billingsgate slang in either high or low places inevitably secures.

Buenos Aires, January 20th.

To Don Domiugo F. Sarmiento.

My dear Friend,

I must trouble you with another letter. 'Mais, que voulez vous?' I am pestered by a pack of roughs, yourself the chief one, and I must avail myself of your friendly bosom as a receptacle for my confidential secrets.

Ah! What an enviable ministerial position is that which the National people aspire to; but it has its drawbacks which neither Del Valle, Lucio V. Lopez, Delfin Gallo nor the rest of the gang under your orders can understand. They know nothing of the prudence and official circumspection required from a Minister when a lot of duffers of all kinds (John Manuel's style) are trying to oust him from his post by means of a beastly opposition, not to the Government, but to the man, whose post they covet but are too mulish and stupid to gain in any other way.

Ah! my dear friend. To see one self treated so by the 'canaille' (you know that this 'canaille' often wears swallow-tailed coats and white kid gloves) and have to bear their brutal attacks in silence is indeed sad for the unfortunate being who occupies a high post in our country, as, instead of such a post securing respect and consideration for him, it holds him up to public scorn and ridicule. This should not be, my good Sarmiento, and, let the rabble howl as they choose, I claim as a man what they deny to me as the magistrate of a civilized country viz., the right to defend myself, because, when I accepted from the Government of my country a high official post in order to frustrate the machinations of the thieving scamps of Belgrano, I did not throw off my citizenship, or resign the rights which others claim to have for the sole reason that they are my inferiors.

No Sir. I am Minister of Justice, and I begin by administering it in my own case, I am Minister in my official acts. In what concerns me personally I am as much a citizen as Lucio Lopez, ready to take an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth from the scum that attack me.

Make room for the bull attacked by the hounds of the Press! Here they have the man, not the Minister, to deal with. Down ye curs!

What consideration do I owe to these degenerate Greeks, these Republicans of the last days of Roman liberty? No, my friend. You I will treat with all the consideration which your hears, your talents and above all your services demand from an honourable man; but with your lieutenants, who are young, vain, pretentious, arrogant, silly and ignorant, it is quite another affair. Have they not been nicely outwitted? And as life with them is one continued carouse, they will make merry and have the "panem et circensem" they covet, and after their puppet-show they will have a bull-ring.

To the bull-ring, then, to the bull-ring!

But, so far as I can prevent it, the Republicans shall never enter the Cabinet. The Capital of the Republic must be a Capital, not a sheebang.

Good for the Capital of the Republic!

By-by, old friend. Will write again soon

Yours sincerely
M. D. Pizarro.

PS. Your letter just to hand, and I send you the pictures you ask for.

OUR THEATRES

COLON.

The following is a short precis of the report of Messrs Buschiazzo and Aberg on the first theatre of Buenos Aires—

The building itself is a perfectly solid one, but as regards safety, it is full of defects which should be remedied at once. Thus, for example, the strong iron gates at the entrance open inwards, which would prove most dangerous in case of an accident. The exit from the pit is small out of all proportion with the number of seats in that part of the house.

It will be indispensably necessary to expropriate Mr Terrero's property next the theatre, to open passages to the street so as to allow easy exit, at any given moment, to the occupants of the upper galleries of the theatre. The six old water tanks, which are simply boxes of 1·70 by 75-1 metres, besides the large tank in the centre are simply worthless, and more a danger to the public health than anything else, owing to the state of corruption of the water they contain.

In case of fire the fate of the building would depend solely on the 'aguas corrientes,' which is no precaution at all, as the pipe water is not always to be had when required. There are 18 hydrants in the theatre —10 in the proscenium and 8 distributed through the galleries. The width of the staircases is only 1·50 metre, and the corridors leading to the boxes are most dangerously narrow, and likewise made of the most combustible material.

The 'cazuela' almost petrified the inspecting architects with horror and surprise. The ceiling is extremely low, made of laths covered with paper, with gas jets flaring within forty centimetres of it!! Both architects declare that it is simply Providential that fire has not broken out over and over again in this part of the theatre from this cause alone. As for the facelities for escape, they are about on a par with the roof and the flooring, both of which are in the worst condition! (This is really shocking, revealing a new and dreadful danger.) The architects declare that the 'cazuela' of the Colon Theatre is the worst thing they have yet seen in any theatre anywhere

The top gallery (alias 'the gods') is quite as dangerous, with only an open arch, barely two yards wide, as a means of exit for the enormous number of people that usually frequent this part of the theatre. In case of a fire those who would escape alive from this gallery would be few indeed. Half a dozen people would suffice to choke up the ricketty door, and every soul in the gallery would either be burned to a cinder or suffocated. The iron shutter must be placed in this as in all the other theatres.

The architects' opinion of the Colon Theatre is enough to frighten the whole city. If the Municipality allow that house to be opened again, on any pretext whatever, till it is remodelled from top to bottom, a fearful responsibility will rest on them before God and man, in case of a fatal accident by fire or the falling of the roof should occur. There can be no Italian Opera or anything else in the Colon Theatre this year. It will take perhaps nearly twelve months to carry out the alterations required.

(From our Own Correspondent)

January 20th.

I suppose it must be accepted as a melancholy fact, that of all the passions that agitate the human heart Love is the author of more crimes in this world than rage, hatred, envy, or cupidity. Fortunately for humanity, however, it is also the mainspring of much that is noble in our nature, and from it is derived directly the greater part of the happiness we poor mortals are permitted to enjoy in this case-hardened sphere of land, fire and water. It is only a few weeks ago all our tenderest sympathies were enlisted for the fate of the young mother who spent hours every day at the grave of her first and only babe, and finally killed herself on the heap of flowers with which she had covered the sod that hid her infant from her sight, thus showing what exaggerated maternal love is capable of doing. What are the boasted sufferings of the martyrs to those of a young mother who is impelled to immolate herself on the tomb of her child, or to those of the guilty lovers who, driven to desperation, take each others' lives as the only means of escaping the torments of remorse and the destruction of their fame and honour. The circumstances of the tragedy of the Italian Perelli, and the wretched girl his victim, which you have translated from the papers, are substantially correct; but there are enigmas that rather confound us. There is no doubt that Perelli, who was many years married, but with no children, had fascinated Miss B. to such an extent as to virtually deprive her of all reasoning faculties. She was madly in love, in the literal sense of the word, and no longer responsible for her actions. In olden times we should have said, with Brabantio, the man had given her love potions and philters. That she should, either voluntarily or at his instigation kill herself is not surprising. But what was the object or the necessity of the double suicide? Doubtless Miss B. would have followed her seducer to any part of the world that he might have chosen. Every one naturally believed on their disappearance that it was simply an elopement. Similar cases are not always rare, although generally the deserted wife turns up at an inopportune moment, a picture of Virtue confronting Vice. Had Perelli been as much in love as his victim was it would seem that a sojourn with her on the flowery earth should have had more attractions for him than the doubtful felicity of the union of their bones in the land of worms. The actual manner in which they perished will never be known. By some strange chance, some would say a Providence, the head of the young woman was intact, and it could be seen that she met her death from a bullet on the left forehead. This would seem to prove that the man killed her, as had she shot herself the ball would have entered the head on the right side. How Perelli was killed is not known, for when found little else than two skeletons, his completely dismembered, remained of the guilty couple. They had evidently intended that their bodies should be found immediately, or soon after death, for the fatal scene was enacted within a couple of squares from the house, in quite a public locality. Little did the poor wretches think their romantic death was to have such a ghastly epilogue.

The remarks of the Graphic newspaper, in reviewing the book of Mrs. M. G. Mulhall, are rather amusing. I suppose they emanate from the poll of the talented critic of that picture weekly, or the authoress of 'Between the Amazon and the Andes' would hardly have been so hard on us. The remark that 'Buenos Aires is more original than pleasant,' standing on its merits might find adherents, but the phrase is followed by 'a shower of beetles, or mice, or fish preludes a storm which drowns horses in the street.' This is rather fishy. Then again comes a very unkind gird, not altogether unmerited, however, in a country where the authorities are in the habit of allowing assassins of every type to roam about unpunished. 'Street murder is as common and as little noticed as drunkenness in Ratcliff Highway.' Oh! Mr. Critic, of the Graphic, you have been reading Mr. Edward Gutierrez's 'Juan Moreira,' I am certain. Travellers are told that 'travelling on the great rivers is pleasant enough if there were no wild Indians or poisonous snakes about, and if you can reconcile yourself to tiger steaks, alligator ragout and boiled monkey, washed down with river water so hot that it has to be hung in the sun in canvas bags to get cool.' Oh! Heavings! Come forward Mr. Bruce, pioneer of steam navigatisn on our great rivers, and tell this rash man that tiger steaks are so expensive that they are unfortunately uncomeatable Rebuke his ignorance in the matter of boiled monkey. Tell him that that lively quadrumana is always roasted—boiling it would spoil its delicious flavour.

I think the album mania is one of the most stupid of all the devices that sycophancy, gratitude, or admiration have invented to reward our big and little celebrities for real or imaginary merits. If filled with artistic portraits of one's friends there may be some sense in an album, it then becomes a pleasant memorial, but generally these presentation albums are nothing but a huge book-shaped object with hideous ornaments in gold and silver on the covers. I remember seeing an album presented to the Paraguayan tyrant, Lopez. The covers were of solid gold, with ugly native engravings, with nothing inside but blank leaves. Others have their first few leaves filled with the names of the donors. I would have no objection to be albumed in the manner of Gen. Lopez, but the covers would soon find their way to the Mint. Now Dr. Iriondo is to have an album, the subscriptions for which already amount to four thousand dollars. I hope he will have the good sense to suggest to his admirers that a dinner set of silver from Elkington would be more attractive and infinitely more useful.

The weather is—well, our only consolation is that the inhabitants of Venus and Mercury are swearing harder than we are. If the Clerk of the Weather is toasting us, he is roasting them,

The R.M.S. Guadiana arrived yesterday at Montevjdeo with dates from Europe to the 27th inst. Her mails will be up this morning. There is not much news. The third engineer of the Guadiana died on the way out, through taking carbolic acid in mistake for whisky. The victims of the Vienna horror are now known to have been only 449 killed and 12 missing.

Two important telegrams were received yesterday, one to say that Mr. Mathew Clark will be here next month, to commence the Andine Railway, and the other to the effect that the Gambetta Cabinet is likely to be turned out, on the question of the Reform of the Constitution.

The heat yesterday was so tremendous that everybody gave way to his feelings. On and off the Bolsa there was a done-up sensation, and getting through business was Titanic work. Even those few who had nothing to do professed themselves utterly unable to do it. The cafes and confiterias were crowded all day long with panting and thirsty souls who turned to Bickbart, Hammer and Peltzer and Seltzer for relief, but it was not to be had. The oldest inhabitant does not remember such a terribly hot day. The signs of rain in the Southern heavens at early morning vanished as the orb of day rose, and many fear that it wont rain till the 26th, when there will be another change in the moon.

The Argentino and Lacrosse Tramway Companies have done at last what we did for them often before, viz, protested against 'vasura' and other heavy carts being allowed to destroy their permanent ways by driving over them and breaking down on them, to the severe loss of the companies and delay and disgust of their passengers. Day in day out the repulsive garbage carts break down in the streets, and always on the tram lines, causing delays of never less than a quarter and very frequently half and three quarters of an hour to long strings of tram cars. The abuse is outrageous, and would not be tolerated for an hour in a third rate European city. We hope the Lord Mayor will pay instant attention to the petition of the two tram companies referred to. It is most just.

The very able article in the Nacion on the new branches of the Provincial Bank in the camp towns was much commented on yesterday. The opinion is that all our banks have too long neglected the camp and that now an entirely new banking system must be adopted. The various private banks in the city, not to be out done by the Provincial Bank, will at once have to open branches, and although nothing as yet is positively decided on, we believe before the Exhibition building is inaugurated the managers will arrange amongst themselves as to the distribution of suburbs and country towns. We propose:—

London and River Plate Bank.....	Glew
Italian Bank.....	San Fernando
English Bank River Plate.....	Ramos Mejia
Carabassa.....	Lomas Zamora
English Trust Co. Bank.....	San Blas
National Bank.....	Flores
Provincial Bank.....	Belgrano

Of course at Flores double stamps would have to be paid, but the people out there are of all others the best able to support such a tax.

The news from the West Coast reports the Lynch expedition as still pushing on into the Interior of Peru. The Chilians have managed to lay hands on Messrs Rivero and Garcia, Cabinet Ministers to Admiral Montero who is acting as President of Peru while Garcia Calderon is in jail. The probability is that the proud invader will soon catch the Admiral too, and lock him up, but as yet he has managed to keep out of the way.

The masquerade balls were again in full swing at the Opera House and Variedades last night, in spite of the reports of the city architects. This is positively nothing less than tempting Providence.

Dr. Pizarro's letter to General Sarmiento, published in the Tribuna Nacional yesterday, was the talk of the whole town. In the clubs, the salons and every public and private resort nothing else was spoken of. We translate this remarkably energetic letter in another column.

Baron von Holleben, German Minister near the Argentine Government, was entertained at a grand banquet last night at the Cafe de Paris. The Baron has been seven years in the country and proved himself a true diplomatist in the most trying situations, a safe-guarding the interests of the Germans and winning the esteem of the Argentine Government. He has always been a steadfast friend of this country, and many will regret that His Excelleacy will probably not return, as he may be appointed to a higher station in Europe by his Government. We join a hearty 'Ieb wohl' to the distinguished guest, who has been a constant subscriber to the Standard.

A Lacrosse tramway car and all in it had a fearfully narrrow escape on Friday night when about to cross the Western Railway line. The horses were stopped just in time to have their noses grazed by the engine. What a shave! This Calle Parque railway danger is as bad as the theatres, and something dreadful will yet happen if both dangers be not summarily dealt with.

Shold any of our merchant, estanciero, or other princes be contemplating the erection of a family mansion, they may find a hint in the following brief description of one of the houses now being built by the great Vanderbilts in New York: "Since the reign of high art came in, house architecture in England has undergone a change; but the most utterly too-too residence at the West-end of London cannot compare with the brown stone mansions now being erected in New York for three members of the wealthy Vanderbilt family. These promise to excel in splendour any of the princely residences for which Fifth-avenue is famous. Not only are they of the most costly description, but the designs possess features that will be recognised as novel even by New Yorkers. The house of Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt, which is being erected on Fifth-avenue, at the corner of Fifty-second street, is described as an "immense, tall, yet well-proportioned structure, bristling with gargoyles, turrets, and gables, and littered over with grotesque figures and fanciful pictures in stone. Cats with bowed backs, dogs with obtrusive vertebrae, dimpled babes and sleepy owls, and hideous satyrs perched on tiny pinnacles, protrude from cornice joints or jut from chimney sides." To what style of architecture the mansion belongs is not mentioned, nor the name of the architect, nor if there is any intention to built any more houses of this kind.

The heat on Change to-day was terrific, and the brokers went about, hats off and fan in hand. The business in gold continued brisk to-day although the gold discounts of the Bank threw a damper on the speculation in the market. The attention of the Bolsa is now divided between gold and National Bank shares. Gold rates ruled weaker to-day, as there is very much specie now offering in the market. The ring closed 25.10 sellers for cash, 25.15 for end of month, and 26.20 for end of February. There are few hopes of maintaining the present premium, owing to the control that the Provincial Bank can exercise on the market at any moment in exchange operations. The resumption of gold discounts by the Prov. Bank is one of the greatest of all market events; for years and years we have been fighting for this step. The Forrester projects in the year 1879 had this gold discount for its chief object, now the Directors adopt it, because it was as clear as a pikestaff that if the Board did not supply the market with gold, the brokers on Change would soon be at their old business in gold at the ring. Dr Pizarro's note to Mr Sarmiento this morning has had its influence on gold; people see clearly how matters stand between the two Governments when a Nat. Minister writes in such terms, and not much improvement is expected in the present situation until the Provincial Government finally leaves B. Aires. Meantime, Dr Pizarro's note this morning was far more to the point than his first one of yesterday, which was too personal and did not touch on topics of such general interest as his note this morning.

Cedulae are at a complete stand still. Some business was effected in Series A at 101¾. Nothing doing whatever in Series B or B. The great heat accounts for the general apathy in all stocks.

The speculation in Nat. Bank shares was larger than usual this morning. The market opened weak at last night's closing rates, but they could not be maintained, although it is reputed in the market that a good deal of money is going into the shares, in spite of the present high prices. Many look forward to the changes in the tribunales and judges in the capital as the immediate forerunner of a decree sending all judicial deposits to the Bank. The decree in question cannot be expected before our talented Minister of Justice, Dr. Pizarro, has succeeded in definitely settling all the Juezes, their secretaries, escribientes e o in the Cabildo, this will take some time yet. At all events, a great many shares were thrown on the market this morning and over 3000 were sold for the end of the month at 132 to 13 ; rates opened at 132 and fell gradually to 131. Prices for end of February opened at 132½ and closed at 132½. Some 350 shares sold for the latter date. The closing rates of the market are firm.

The sales at the ring were—

The 2nd Argentine Insurance Co, one of Mr F F Moreno's famed Insurance Companies, has just declared a ten per cent dividend for the year, and put aside for reserve 10 per cent. All Mr Moreno's Companies are singularly prosperous.

The sale of the Cotswold sheep by Messrs Bullrich the other day is the talk of the farmers; the price paid 26 m/c. even for common mestiza sheep would have been considered cheap, and the buyer of the two flocks may congratulate himself on his bargain.

Mr Beckhaus, one of our leading barraqueros, bought a suerte of the Nueva Roma lands at Mr Bullrich's auction; the price paid cannot be considered dear, $175,000 per league. It is a good sign to see our barraqueros buying estancias, they know so much about wool and its get up that it is really a gain for the country to get the barraqueros into sheep, as it is probable with such men as sheepfarmers, we shall soon have some reform in the get up of this staple

On Friday nearly all the drawers of exchange in the market put down their rates slightly, and many attribute this to some large taker, entering the market and taking for the last English mail £250,000 stg., still although the drawers put down their rates, there are no takers at present rates.

Advices from Rosario announce that the well known firm of Hope & Sword is dissolved by mutual agreement. Messrs Sword Bros have bought the Messrs Hope's share, and remain in the old place Loma Verde Rosario, whilst Messrs Hope have taken some new camp in the vicinity. Everything up there seems to thrive, they had very heavy rains there at the end of last month.

Affairs in the Cabildo to-day are worse than ever; all the escribanos it seems must move out and at once. Minister Pizarro went over the whole place on Friday a ranging for the court rooms for the new National Judges; to fit them all into the Cabildo is impossible, and the Dr is looking out for one or two large houses as subsidiary court houses Nothing is said about the Provincial Courts, but it appears they have abandoned the idea of remaining any longer in town.

We hear of a sale of 10,000 salted hides of Mr Picker, Gualeguaychu, at 49 rls; weight 52 lbs.

It appears that there is a mistake in the quotations of sales of capons in the corrales at 62 m/c. We are informed that no such sales at that high price have taken place since the last two months, and sheep-farmers need not cherish the illusion of obtaining such prices. The current prices in capones range between $35 and $40 per animal well understood "pelados"

Mr Chico, so well known in this market, will leave in a few days for Europe in the French Messageries steamer Senegal. We wish him an agreeable voyage and quick return.

The Pizarro Note was the talk of Change; many parties bought National Bank shares on the strenght of this letter, as it is rumoured there will be a ministerial change in a few days that will immensely benefit the National Bank; we give the rumour for what it may be worth.

There was a hushed whisper on Change this morning of a financial crisis in Paris. The only telegram that has come, however, gives "financial position bad"—but there is not a word about a crisis, still people are on guard as for the last 6 months the English financial organs have been predicting trouble in France.

Exchange on Paris done to-day at 5.28, and on London at 50, all the drawers say that but for the Provincial Bank the rates would be much lower.

The Italian share king is at present at the Pocitos bathing. Mr. Jordan who has arrived up from Ouruguay was welcomed on Change.

Thirty three Old Gas Shares sold at 2000. It was rumoured that the dividend would be declared to-day.

Several telegrams were received to day from Paris announcing a financial crisis in that capital. Some attributed same to the late reckless speculation on the Bourse and to the accumulation of gold in the vaults of the Banque de France, where it remained idle. Others thought that it might be caused by a Ministerial crisis on the religious question and the Constitution, out of which Gambetta had made a Cabinet question. That this crisis must somewhat affect the market stands to reason, since telegrams were received from Antwerp to-day cautioning operators in wool. It looks very like a commercial crisis, both in Paris and the industrial districts of the North of France. We have been favoured with the following telegrams by several leading firms:—

Antwerp 20th.

"Situation of money market bad.

Antwerp 20th.

"Wool suffering from a progressive fall in prices.

Antwerp 20th.

"Reduce limits by 4."

A new French bank has been started in Paris by the well-known banker M. Pereire; the new concern is known as the Banque Transatlantique.

At afterhours much gold was sold and prices weakened, the market closing at 25.7½ sellers. Very large amounts were sold at 25.10, but the market relapsed to 7½, buyers only offering 25.05 In National Bank shares over one thousand were sold at weaker rates: prices fell for end of month to 30½, rose to 30¾ and closed at 30½: over 700 shares were sold at the latter rate about half past 4 o'clock.

10,000 $ Cedulas E were sold at afterhours at 89 for cash.

Some Gas shares (Primitive) were sold at a late hour at 2,000 m/c.

It was remarkable how gold ruled flat in the afternoon whilst sales on time remained firm, selling for April at 25.40, and for end of February at 25.25.

The Strabo is due to-morrow in Montevideo

Captain Pym of the musical steamer Mozart was welcomed on Change.

The Rio Plata has engaged a full cargo for Dunkerque at 35 francs.

There was no meeting at the Provincial Bank to-day.

Wheat is still going up in Santa Fe, 12½ Bolivianos have been paid per fanega, which means $155 m/c in Buenos Aires. The holders are renewing the old tactics of last year, and there is no excuse for such high prices when the harvest will more than cover consumption.

The wool market is very paralyzed; the 'artistas' nevertheless, buy up readily the good wool at more or less the usual prices; but the news from Europe to-day made many of them look glum, as there are fears that the Antwerp auction will knock prices on the head and bring everything to a dead stand, still, some 15,000 arrobes arrived in the Once to-day; very little sold and much wool going to deposit. In the market nevertheless, there are plenty of bales offering and freights are firm.

At the South Market some business done at the following prices:—

In spite of all the promises made months ago the Parque Station has not yet been removed to the Once, where the terminus of the line should be finally fixed. Some parties state that these delays arise out of the fact that the Provincial Government has not yet determined the site of the new Capital. Thus if Flores were made Capital the grand station would be erected the e. It is thought that if Ensenada become Provincial Capital the great station of the Western line will be erected in Floresta, and thence a branch line would unite it with the Ensenada. Any way the removal of the Parque is becoming a necessity owing to the constant danger of the trains in our streets.

The cargo of hides of the Laurencena that we published yesterday should be 10,000 instead of 1,000 as published.

Messrs Schaffhoorth have cleared the Italian barque Nuestra Señora del Carmelo for Antwerp, with—

95	bales rags
17	bales garras
141,000	horns
1,359	dry hides
762	pieces wood

The Nacion is no doubt at the head of the Buenos Aires Press, and very many called attention to-day to the admirable schedule of the Budget; whoever drew same up must have had great patience. We give the following extract of the Finance Department as the most interesting to the market:—

"The service of the public debt and of credit amounts this year to $10,624,678, owing to the new obligations taken over on the loans of the Province of Buenos Aires in 1870 and 1873; these loans and their service now fall on the National Government, as mutually agreed on at the cession of B Aires to the Nation Besides these loans the service of the following new laws comes into force before next April—

Treasury Bills.....	$ 4,000,000
Prov. Bank payment law	16,000,000
Various credits.....	1,000,000
Riachuelo loan.....	4,000,000
	$25,000,000

and the service of the above exacts for interests and amortisation $1,630,000. As it is very probable that these bonds will not be emitted for some time and that payments on the first quarter of this year will not fall due, the Government will economise the payment of $395,000.

"Herein are not included the $3,000,000 to complete the City Improvement Works; when this loan is launched the service of it will amount to $480,000.

"The Ministerial Department, compared with 1881, shews an increase of $3,960, and that of the Contaduria General $4,200; same were sanctioned at a total expenditure of $87,540.

"In 1881 the Tesoreria General, Casa de Moneda, and Direccion General de Rentas, figured for $116,640; the Committee proposed $122,720, and Congress sanctioned $127,440; an increase of $10,800.

"The Administracion General de sellos and patentes burdened with double work since the federalization of the city, spent in 1881 $fts. 11,880; the committee proposed $7,19,380 and congress sanctioned 21,900, owing to the above cause.

"The Contribucion office and department were created and the budget of the committee $fts. 31 080 was sanctioned.

"The budget of the Administracion de Rentas in 1881 amounts to $fts. 732,444, the committee increased same for the current year to $fts. 836,296, and the final budget was sanctioned at $ 904,554 an increase of $fts. 172,210 over last year. Increased business and the necessity of watching the coast and banks of the rivers more closely led to this increase.

"The item Fiscal buildings lighthouses and eventuales remained as in 1881 at 86,400

"Pensiones and Jubilaciones were reduced by $ 1,380, owing to the death of one of the pensioners.

"100,000 $ were voted for the measurement of National Lands.

"The Budget of the Finance Department not including the service of the debt, amounts to 1,441,807$. The Committee proposed $1,315-207. This budget in 1881 only amounted to $1,065,227; there is thus an increase in 1882 of $376,578

The Villarino, Commander Spurr, leaves to-morrow morning for Patagones. She takes an immense cargo and many cases of merchandize have to be left for her next trip. The trade with this Southern port is assuming larger dimensions every month, and if the bar could be removed large steamers would be already flying between both ports. The appearance of the town of Patagones would not lead one to suppose that there is much business in the place, but the banks of the river are studded with cattle farms and Italian chacras. The troops besides give rise to a great trade with the old town, and the Villarino leaves heavy with articles for the officers and men in Choele-Choel. General Villegas has orders to buy down there 1000 fat horses, for his expedition brush with the Indians at the Medanos is expected to put fresh life into the expedition. Commander Spurr does not take down Dr H Alvarez this time; owing to the illness of Dr Del Viso, the Sub-Secretary will not leave, but will go down to Patagones in February. Colonel Winter goes down, with lot of telegraph material. Amongst the cargo we remark a good deal of fencing-wire and posts for corrales. We wish Commander Spurr a pleasant trip and a safe passage over the bar.

A new steamer, El Parana, is to be put on the river Parana route to Asuncion. The new steamer is a fast one.

The current of emigration to the Mount from Europe is certainly very small. In the month of December the arrivals were 903, and departures 1308. The only emigrants at present in Montevideo are brokers of the B. Aires Bolsa; they can be seen with their families at the Pocitos every morning. The numbers bathing in that favorite spot, according to a friend's expression, beat Ostend hollow; sometimes from six to seven thousand members of the River Plate high-life can be seen on the beach.

There is some talk of starting a paper-mill in this city. There is plenty of prime materials in the country, and if the newspapers would make contracts with the new enterprise it would succeed. The old paper-mill of 1879 has burst up long ago, as it found no support. The idea is a good one, and the paper should be produced here 15 o/o cheaper than in Europe

A large amount of money was taken up yesterday on National Bank Shares at 10 o/o per annum and shares at par.

We extract the following from the South American Journal:—

"Those of our readers interested in the progress of South American navigation must be struck by its annual increase, as illustrated by two closely printed columns of our last issue, covering only a fortnight of time, and irrespective of a long list of sailing ships. The fact is that trade with South America is growing much faster than even those engaged in it are aware, the three foremost countries being, of course, Brazil, Chili, and the Argentine Republic. In face of these details it is not a little singular that so much ignorance exists amongst the general public as to the real value of our trade with South America, and that information respecting it is not more sought for through the medium of the publications which exist on the subject. The numerous public companies in South America, represented by English capital, ought also to do more in the way of encouraging and courting publicity, instead of the fitful and uncertain manner in which such things are dealt with. The magnitude of our trade in that direction must, however, gradually force itself on public attention.

"The Central Argentine Land Co., Limited.—The Directors of this Company have prudently declared a dividend "on account" of the profits of the past half-year of only 5 per cent., or 1s. per Share, although, according to what passed at the last meeting of the Company, this will leave a considerable sum in hand. The prospects of all kinds of property in the Argentine Republic continue to improve in an almost marvellous manner; and of course this improvement applies in an especial degree to land adjoining railways and available for villages and towns. Since the 12th November, when we directed attention to the remarkably valuable nature and extent [upwards of 800,000 acres] of this Company's landed property, the price of the Shares appears to have risen from £2. 17s. 6d. to about £3 10s. to £3 12s. 6d., but the Shareholders should not forget that the average value of the land sold has been not less than 10s. to 20s per acre, which, on the 107,000 Shares issued, would represent, as was then stated, a value of £5 to £7 per Share. Land in large quantities near a railway may in time give the profitable results of a most prosperous Mine without any ordinary risk; indeed, to value such land at only 20s. per acre appears preposterous to persons in England who know what Railways have done for land in their neighbourhood. We cannot suppose it possible that the experienced and able Board of this Company will make any such sacrifice of the property committed to their charge as to sell at these figures. Natural advantages, excellent management, and caution in selling land have brought wonderful results to some of the Land Companies in Canada."

We extract the following from a pamphlet published by Messrs Christy & Co., 155, Fenchurch Street, E.C., entaled "Hydro-Incubation, its theory and practice: a Guide to Commercial Poultry Farming":—

"Ostrich farming is spreading rapidly to other countries, notably to the Argentine Republic. Messrs Hill Frotheroe & Co., of B. Aires, I suppose the largest people in the Republic engaged in this pursuit, inform me (Aug. 1881), of the following interesting facts in connection with their farming operations:

"We lately brought over to this country from Cape Colony a shipment of 200 ostriches, our intentions being to establish ourselves here as ostrich breeders and importers, and from what he have seen of the pasture, &c., we have not the slightest doubts of the undertaking. Another gentleman is already farming here with about 150 birds, nearly 60 of which he has reared in this country, using your Hydro-Incubator. We hope to be large importers of South African ostriches, and are now expecting a second shipment of breeding birds from Cape Town.

"We enclose a copy of a small book we published on 'Ostrich Farming', and you will observe on page 14 that we recommend your Incubator as the best yet invented."

"The rules of working ostrich 'Hydro-Incubators' are precisely those given in a preceding chapter for the smaller machines for hens' eggs, &c., allowing for various sizes as required. The usual patterns are a 12-egg size machine, a 24-egg, a 36-egg size, and larger ones up to 99 eggs, one of which 'Giant Incubators' we supplied to Mr G Chatfield, at Bloemfontein, and which obtained his hearty approval."

We think it well to lay before the public the following report just received from Mr J. Frederick Norman on the above mentioned 10 leagues of camp Section G. Nos 1, 4 and 5, which we shall offer in auction on the 24. inst. The report reads :—

Lots 4 & 5. On the afternoon of Dec. 29th I started for your camp. The land is very deep, the soil black and full of vegetable matter with a growth of pasture I have never seen anywhere else, a perfect mat of "alfalfarillo" and "trèvol", with the pasto fuerte pushing up through it. Camping that night by a pool of water, I started next morning and beginning from S. E. mojon rode over the camp; it is soft and heavy pasture as I have already described, it gets higher near the west. but the soil black, and good sound grasses. That afternoon I rode until I got to the corner of lot 2, and then to the top of the cañada on your camp Lot I, where finding water I camped. The cañada is about 2 or 3 squares wide, the camp on the north is very good with lots of grass, towards the south it is more knobby but still good camp.

Lot I. Both your camps would take fully 2000 head of cattle per league if not more.

PARIS LETTER

(From our own Correspondent)

December 16th

The Republic is guilty of the sin of counting the people, and the act causes more anxiety to the virtuous and the vicious alike, than the voting of supplemental credits for Tunisia or the casuistical debate about M Gambetta being chief of the Executive, and M Grevy chief of the State. The gravamen of the anxiety resides in the fact, that citizens have to tumulate a portion of their autobiography, and then hand it to Cerberus, the generic name of house porter, who will read, mark learn, and gossip about it, as familiarly as if the subject were only a postal card or a tax summons. Not a few would prefer the Roman plan of appearing before a censor in his carule chair, and while supplying details, swear to their accuracy. The republic however, like the Friends, observes the injunction to 'swear not at all.' There are couples living together independent of the authorisation of Church or State; they have children, whose parentage is an enigma. With the Latins, single women and orphans were registered on a separate list and never were included in the general population balance. A lady who has positively become fresher looking since the last census, is she justified in docking, one lustre say, of nature's addition? Unlike bigamy, it is not a hanging offence to supply 'incomplete' information to a census clerk, happily. Why should ladies be punished for indulging in romantic views, and journalists be let off scot free? Equality is a republican virtue, and gallantry ought to imitate charity by covering a multitude of sins. Often in a court of law, a judge's quartshaped hat has been observed to involuntarily stand bolt upright when a lady replies to her age; but the annals of the bench never record an instance where a judge followed with the observation: 'Madame, remember you are on your oath.'

The Figaro, which claims to be the first journal in France, indulging in a remarkable guess at truth, that its columns were becoming as uninteresting as a charity sermon or a slashing article in a Quarterly, offered a prize of frs 500 for a three column contribution on any subject, only to be outside abstract politics, pure literature or first class rhetoric; nearly 600 manuscripts were received; a good many of the articles were written on wrapping paper, used up grocery bags, and bearing numerous inner and outer circles of pint measures and tumblers. As a sign of the times, the grand majority of the essays were devoted to criminal and phonographic subjects The tale selected unanimously, is a namby pamby Loves of the Angels affair; where a young man quarrels with his grisette, and they never meet till both are in the sear and yellow leaf; he, an Academician, and she, the granny of an artizan family. 'Six transit gloria.' The truth is, public taste in France, as in other countries perhaps, leans to money making, luxurious comforts, amusements of the Forum character on gala days, sensational stories not longer than a telegram, where the success of virtue or the triumph of villainy creates no other interest, than as works of art. All else is leather and prunella,

But I forget Donato, who contributes to our 'panem et circenses' avidities; he possesses a one panoramic power of attraction. He is a magnetiser, an old matter under a new form. Hitherto Professor Charcot had the monopoly of imposing his will on the cataleptic, the hysteric, and the hypnotic, for modern science coins as many names as the Scholastics of the Middle Ages. Donato aims to popularize the biological phenomena of Charcot in the inmates of the Salpétrere lunatic asylum; only the professor's auditors do not laugh, and their number is restrained. Donato makes science amusing, and more mouths are opened by broad grins than one. He has no connection, he asserts, with such houses over the way as the convulsionists of St. Medard, Balsamo, or Cagliostro. He selects from among the audience the fastest 'gommeux' or any young man from the country, and makes them as obedient to his will as Ariel to Prospero; they avow turnips, to be peaches, moons green cheese, and freezing point to be close neighbor to boiling water. Thus man come up to what woman is said to be—a contradiction. Mlle Lucile is the girl of the period. "Un poco piu di luce". Donato takes her hair pin, of respectable dagger size, plunges it into her arm, and she no more budges than a martyr in his shroud. A concert follows, where tin kettles and tam tams discourse excellent music: she avows, as Donato tells her, it is an overture of Gounod's, till a son of harmony exclaims:—'Vive Wagner! E finita la musica'.

If girls have St. Catherine to fete, the boys have St. Nicholas to watch over them; tall and austere as that good man is represented to be, he yet is full of the milk of human kindness, but I mus its exercise to Grachi under six years of age, by leaving toys at midnight, beside their cradles, when the occupants are in a sleep as profound as that in which Adam was plunged when a memorable operation was performed on him. For the moment then, household music is the order of the day; nurseries resound with Kronmir trumpets, Tunisian kettle drums, Piedmontese pipes, and Yankee flutes; there are rabbits drummers and that beat every variety of dead—and living march. and Original Christy minstrels with banjo and castanet, that grandmothers boast they can hear without the aid of an acoustic cane, and by which babies are quieted to a one-lung roaring power.

The Gambetta Cabinet is keeping the even tenor of its way; old maids even commence to think there may be a relish of salvation after all about it. The Ministers are occupied simply with business, and turn a deaf ear to Teazleism. If there be no doing, as politicians out of place say, with Gambetta, there is certainly no doing without him. He has cut the wings and claws of the radicals, by showing up the absurdity of their whole hog or none programme; he is even deferential to the monarchists, as every right minded person ought to be in presence of the departed. The seventy-five senators, on whom a practical joke was played to be elected for life, are to be extirpated in Spring at the flower of their age. Senator Jules Simon would be more logical in bringing an action against the state for breach of promise, than calling those who differ from him imbeciles and cowards. The terrible Paul Bert has had no cold bishop as yet served on his sideboard. Matters will jog along till the new session next January, and republicans will exhibit how they dwell in unity, by splitting up into 'infinimen s petits.' The end of the year is the harvest season of the not to be forgotten classes, of both high and low degree. At this epoch French hisory never records the outbreak of revolutions or the bursting of Cabinets. Had Napoleon III. made his 'Coup d'Etat' on the 31st, instead of the 2d. of December, and so enabled uncheerful givers to escape the season's black mailing, even Victor Hugo might extenuate the quitting 'de la legalite pour rentrer dans la droit,

A year ago a shopkeeper aged 50 married a pretty girl of 17; lately she went to see her parents in Versailles for three days: seventeen elapsed, but no return: the Seine was dragged, the Morgue watched, and the police set on foot, when the husband re-entering his shop found the lost one smiling around: nearly the first thing he attempted was to kill her; he disbelieved her story, that missing a train, she had to sleep in a hotel, was there attacked with a fit, and lay in a trance for seventeen days; on rousing from her Rip Van Winkle slumber, she was astonished to find among other changes—a new Ministry.

On Sunday evening last at dusk, a man was run over, and his wooden leg crushed; he hobbled to a wall, when a Good Samaritan put him in a cab, and had him driven to the Pitie' hospital: at once admitted to the accident ward, the assistant surgeon ordered his expulsion, and had him carried on a stretcher to a turner's.

At a banquet at Charenton recently, the chairman on rising to propose the day we celebrate, had hardly arrived at the assurance that he was unaccustoned to public speaking, though he was an eloquent burning and shining light in the clubs, than he experienced the fate of Ananias and his lady.

Mr. Jordan spoke prose all his life without knowing it; according to a learned Theban, it seems we are two inches taller in the morning than when going to bed; the fatigue of the day diminishes stature by compressing the articulations. Some conscripts it seems, to escape being converted into food for powder, have the power to deceive the very elect of the army, by reducing their height; this consists, by not going to bed for three nights in succession; carrying heavy burdens on the head and shoulders, and going in extensively for nips of cognac.

Sarah Bernhardt asserts she is not a Jewess, but a Catholic. Napoleon I. was a Mussulman.

Neighborly lodgers on the same flat lend one another their wheeling stoves, when visitors are expected; a other economy; by connecting their salon with a public ball room, ladies can receive, telephonically, music at next to first cost.

In a letter, a friend stated, "I write under the empire of great weariness;" his correspondent in reply added, "I write under the republic of ennui"—so gave an Oliver, Tit for tat.

"You will," said one young lady to another, both occupied embroidering slippers for their papas, "never finish in time." "But do not forget my dear, your papa has only one leg."

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

[IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.]

—o—

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 13th 1864.
The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admired by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diphtheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. "To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London. "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation that justly-esteemed medicine, Dr. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Cholera Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

ROUGHING IT IN THE COLONIES.—There can be no doubt that a man has to put up with many little inconveniences when he settles in a new country; some of them arising from 'the necessity of things,' whilst others are the result of his own want of knowledge or foresight. However, if he can secure pure water and good bread he will manage to get along tolerably well. Thanks to the advance of chemical science, this last desideratum is not so difficult to obtain as in times past, for with a good supply of BORWICK'S BAKING POWDER, even Robinson Crusoe himself might have produced the whitest and most palatable of bread, to say nothing of cakes and pastry ad libitum, and would doubtless have ended by opening a pastry-cook's shop upon his desert island. NOTA BENE.—Don't forget to ask your storekeeper to put up a good supply of this valuable article with your groceries. In packets, 1d, and 2d.; boxes, 6d. and 1s. each.
